

IMMIGRATION INSPECTOR

Port of San Francisco Praises Peruna for personal benefit received.

San Francisco, January 6, 1914.

Mr. A. de la Torre, Jr., formerly U. S. Inspector of Immigration, Port of San Francisco, writes from No. 1111 Powell St., San Francisco, Cal.: "I take great pleasure in recommending your great national catarrh cure, Peruna, as the best I ever used. I sincerely express my thanks to you for the health which I now enjoy. It has done me and a number of my friends good, and I can assure you that I shall take every opportunity to speak in favor of what I consider to be the best remedy for catarrh in existence today."

Recognized Him.

In one case the late Mr. Justice Hawkins sentenced all the prisoners to death. The sentences were afterwards remitted to terms of penal servitude, while one of the defendants, Alice Rhodes, received a free pardon.

In the summer of that year Mr. Justice Hawkins, feeling warm after a walk over Wimbledon Common, called at an inn and asked for a ginger beer. He thought the barmaid looked at him strangely.

"Thank you, my lord," she said as she handed him his change.

"You know me, then?" exclaimed Hawkins, with a smile.

"I shall never forget you," answered the barmaid. "It's not a year ago that you sentenced me to death."

The barmaid was Alice Rhodes.—London Mail.

A CLERGYMAN'S TESTIMONY.

The Rev. Edmund Heslop of Wigton, Pa., suffered from Dropsy for a year. His limbs and feet were swollen and puffed. He had heart fluttering, was dizzy and exhausted at the least exertion. Hands and feet were cold and he had such a dragging sensation across the loins that it was difficult to move.

After using 5 boxes of Dodds Kidney Pills the swelling disappeared and he felt himself again. He says he has been benefited and blessed by the use of Dodds Kidney Pills. Several months later he wrote: I have not changed my faith in your remedy since the above statement was authorized. Correspond with Rev. E. Heslop about this wonderful remedy.

FIVE YOUNG MEN HELD

WAIVE HEARING AND NOW AWAIT GRAND JURY'S ACTION.

Disturbers Who Attempted to Break Into Woman's Home Go to Jail in Default of Bond.

Western Newspaper Union News Service.

Santa Fé.—Julian Baca, Juan Gonzales, Rosario Tucker, Jose Chaves Santiago Coriz, all young men, are in jail on the charge of attempted house-breaking, damage to property and threatening the life of Mrs. Martini, a well known French woman who has an orchard and gardens on College street, just south of the bridge. Mrs. Martini says this is the culmination of a long series of petty annoyances at the hands of the disorderly element which frequents College street at night and she demands that the offenders get the limit of the law.

They were taken before Justice Jose Maria Garcia, and waived preliminary hearing and were held to the grand jury in $300 bond each, each one also being placed under a $200 peace bond. In default of bond the young men were locked up in jail to meditate on the way of the transgressor.

Prefer Thirty Days to Castor Oil.

Las Vegas.—"Which would you prefer to do: drink three bottles of this stuff which you have stolen or go to jail for thirty days?" asked Justice D. R. Murray of Encarnacion Gutierrez and Manuel Duran. "Give us the thirty days," replied the two in concert. The stuff they stole was castor oil. Gutierrez and Duran discovered a supply of it in the basement of a drug store a few days ago, and stole two dozen bottles. They undertook to peddle it out, intending to buy more palatable liquor with the money. Chief of Police Ben Coles put a stop to the operations of the amateur druggists, however, by arresting them. They were found guilty in Justice Murray's court and were given thirty days in jail.
